

The Hidden Curriculum of Ableism in Health Professions Training Practice: Deconstructing Policy, Language and Culture

presented by

Erene Stergiopoulos, MD, MA

Erene Stergiopoulos is a fifth-year resident in Psychiatry and first year PhD student in Health Professions Education Research at the University of Toronto, where she is a Research Fellow of the Wilson Centre. She holds a BSc in Psychology and MA in History and Philosophy of Science from the University of Toronto. Under the supervision of Dr. Tina Martimianakis, her doctoral work uses critical qualitative methods to study the experiences of medical learners with disabilities. Using a socio-cultural lens, she is interested in processes of professional identity formation and institutional regulation for doctors and learners with disabilities, from training to practice.

Learning Objectives: As a result of participating in this Live Internet Activity, participants should be able to:

- Identify sociocultural research on the culture of healthcare work, the concept of the hidden curriculum, and the medical vs social models of disability.
- Discuss how the culture, structure, and hidden curriculum of healthcare training and practice pose barriers to practitioners with disabilities.
- Develop frameworks for practical changes to policy and practice to support greater diversity and inclusion.

Accreditation & Credit Designation Statements: In support of improving patient care, Hartford HealthCare is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

- Physicians: Hartford Healthcare designates this Live Activity for 1.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with their participation.
- Psychologists: Continuing Education (CE) credits for psychologists are provided through the co-sponsorship of the American Psychological Association (APA) Office of Continuing Education in Psychology (CEP). The APA CEP Office maintains responsibility for the content of the programs.
- Nurses: This activity is approved for 1.25 ANCC contact hour(s).
- Social Workers: As a Jointly Accredited Organization, Hartford HealthCare is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved under this program. State and provincial regulatory boards have the final authority to determine whether an individual course may be accepted for continuing education credit. Hartford HealthCare maintains responsibility for this course. Social workers completing this course receive 1.25 other continuing education credits.
- Other Learners: All other learners will receive a Certificate of Participation for 1.25 hours of education. Consult your professional licensing board regarding the applicability and acceptance of certificates of participation for educational activities certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] from organizations accredited by Joint Accreditation for Interprofessional Continuing Education.
