

BEDLAM: Public Education of a Most Personal Nature

presented by

Kenneth Paul Rosenberg, MD

Kenneth Paul Rosenberg is an American psychiatrist known for his clinical work in addiction and psychotherapy and for his popular films and books. Rosenberg was a medical student at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine while simultaneously studying documentary filmmaking at New York University to make verité documentaries about the subjective experience of illness. He maintains a private practice specializing in addiction medicine in Manhattan. He is an Emmy, Peabody and Columbia DuPont Award winner whose films have screened from the Sundance Film Festival to the US Capitol Hill. Rosenberg is co-editor with Laura Feder of the addiction textbook, Behavioral Addictions (2014), and he is the author of two trade books, Infidelity (2018) and Bedlam (2019), which was written with Jessica DuLong.
