presented by

Harold I. Schwartz, M.D.

Harold I. (Hank) Schwartz, M.D. currently serves as Psychiatrist-in-Chief, Emeritus at Hartford Hospital's Institute of Living (IOL). He previously served as Psychiatrist-in-Chief of the IOL and Vice President, Behavioral Health at Hartford Healthcare for twenty eight years. He is Professor of Psychiatry in the University Of Connecticut School Of Medicine and Adjunct Professor of Psychiatry in the Yale University School of Medicine.

Dr. Schwartz has served in many capacities as an advocate for psychiatric patients, psychiatric services and the profession of psychiatry. In 2000, he served on the Connecticut Governor's Blue Ribbon Commission on Mental Health. Following the mass murder in Newtown, Governor Malloy appointed him to the Governor's Sandy Hook Advisory Commission. He also served as a co-author of the Sandy Hook Report, an exhaustive review of the Sandy Hook shootings, issued by Connecticut's Office of the Child Advocate. He is a past-President of the Connecticut Psychiatric Society and has served in numerous other leadership roles at the local, regional and national levels.

Dr. Schwartz graduated from the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1979 and completed a fellowship in Forensic Psychiatry at New York University/Bellevue Hospital Center. He has published over 100 articles, book chapters or books and has appeared frequently in numerous television, radio and print venues. He is a Fellow of the American College of Psychiatrists, a Distinguished Life Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association and has won numerous awards and honors.
